Telling the Girl Scout Story Session Board of Directors Meeting on June 12, 2010

Small Group Statements:

1. Because of safe environment, each girl feels special to create and do activities of their choice, in this, they grow and develop into leaders.
2. Thanks to cookies, girls have contemporary options to develop leadership skills in a setting not available in any other venue. With Girl Scouts, the girls are the planners, earners, and with cookie funds can execute their plan.
 - Gold & Silver Awards – change
 - Troop stories
 - In School Scouting – change
 - Leadership ability of girls who have gone through
 - Ropes courses – contemporary programming – change
3. Provide experiences girls can't get anywhere else that builds courage, confidence, and character. It doesn't matter who the girls are and where they are from – they build leadership and life skills. Experiences include:
 - Selling cookies
 - Camping
 - Teambuilding
 - Community service
 - Democratic process
 - Environmental causes
